LIQUID FUELS Company of Trinidad and Tobago Limited

Employment Opportunity

The Liquid Fuels Company of Trinidad and Tobago invites suitably qualified nationals of Trinidad & Tobago to apply for the following position:

SENIOR TECHNICIAN

The Senior Technician ensures the availability of Company equipment by reducing the frequency and duration of equipment down time. The Senior Technician is responsible for ensuring that the Asset Integrity of the plant equipment is maintained in accordance with the planned schedules and for executing service and repair work on equipment as directed.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Demonstrates intimate knowledge and understanding of HSE laws
- Actively promotes a culture of HSE.
- Inculcates strong values and work ethics.
- Promotes harmonious work relations and fosters teamwork among other staff.
- Expedites operational efficiency by receiving trouble reports from the Plant Engineer/Chief Technician.
- Prepares and obtains approved work permits.
- Ensures lockout and tag out procedures are applied with Operations before maintenance work is carryout out on equipment.
- Makes diagnostic checks concerning the related problems.
- Carries out Mechanical & Electrical planned inspections and repairs faulty equipment and systems that relate to the assigned area.
- Reports on the status of assigned work by notifying the Plant Engineer or his representative of work in progress and work schedule.
- Documents the preventative maintenance activities executed daily, with recommendations for improvements.
- Maintains proper records of all work carried out on assigned area equipment and systems in anticipation of any queries by forwarding completed work orders to the planning department for processing into the Maintenance Management system on a timely basis.
- Accompanies representatives of government international organizations on inspection visits.
- Prepares forms, certificates and other documents required for day to day functioning.
- Prepares scope of works to facilitate the execution of repair works and services that require contract work.
- Ensures the ability to respond promptly and effectively to trouble calls and maintenance activities by checking that tools, testing equipment under the position's care remain in proper operating condition.
- Contributes to monitoring of contracts by verifying the performance of work done to ensure that they meet the agreed upon specifications.
- Ensures adherence to established safety procedures.
- Maintains an acceptable working environment at all times.
- Reviews and verifies the work done by other technicians.
- Performs all other duties related to or compatible with the position or as assigned from time to time by the Manager LFCTT or Plant Engineer

THE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE MUST IDEALLY POSSESS:

- Diploma in Mechanical/Electrical/Electronic Engineering.
- Computer Literacy, Oral & Written Communication skills.
- Driver's License.
- Three years' experience in the related field of work
- The ability to perform mechanical, electrical and electronic repair functions.
- Detailed knowledge of plant operating procedures, plant equipment and process controls.
- Ability to exercise sound judgement to make quick, accurate and safe decisions in response to emergencies and abnormal situations.
- In depth knowledge of Distributed Control Systems and Process Operations.
- Ability to diagnose maintenance problems of Terminal equipment.
- Ability to communicate and interpret Engineering / Technical jargon.

Persons who meet the above requirements are invited to email a complete résumé with cover letter no later than 2026 November 18 to:

General Manager - Human Resource & HSSE
Trinidad & Tobago National Petroleum Marketing Company Limited
NP House, National Drive,
Sea Lots, Port of Spain
email : vacancies@np.co.tt

NB: Only suitable applicants will be contacted.