Service Station Forecourt Attendant receives an Educational Boost

As the COVID-19 pandemic gave rise to challenges to many, Trinidad & Tobago National Petroleum Marketing Company Limited (NP) is proud to recognize Aaiden Eugene, a Forecourt Attendant at the Laventille Service Station. Aaiden, who hails from Second Caledonia, Morvant, is the holder of seven (7) CXC O'Level subjects and is working part-time while pursuing a degree in Computer Engineering.

At a presentation at the Service Station on Thursday, October 28th, 2021, NP's Chief Executive Officer (Ag.), Mr. John Gormandy presented Aaiden with an Amazon Tablet and Backpack in support of his academic goals. Also on hand for the presentation was Mr. Jason Johnson, Treasurer of the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service Social and Welfare Association (TTPSSWA), the operators of the NP Laventille Station.

NP believes that the pursuit of education at all levels is paramount to the development of our youth. As part of its Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives, the Company commits to providing tangible support to the youth in the community and within its Service Station network.
